2025 HOT CHILLIE RUN 'Pub Lunch'

For us, the morning showers abated as rapidly as they arrived, the clouded skies above gave way to blue and the scene was set for the start of the 2025 Hot Chilli 'Pub Lunch' run to Harrisville.

With the 4/4 gleaming and the roof tucked neatly away, we set off like many of the other MOCQ members keen to meet up at the Royal Hotel in Harrisville for our first official run in 2025.

On arriving we were pleased to note that Cath, the publican, had arranged for reserved parking, front and centre of the Hotels roadside verandah. Very quickly, Morgans began arriving, witches hats were shuffled along while Morgans of all colours jostled for position. All up we had nine Morgans in attendance, some older ones, some newer ones, some with four cylinders and some with eight. A very fine sight indeed, needless to say a great deal of attention was lavished upon them by the passing public. Having met on the verandah for a quick chat we were eventually ushered inside to the restaurant area, where our reserved tables awaited. To our delight the restaurant was styled with an air of elegance and a hint of country charm. Also, greatly appreciated, was the positioning of the air-conditioning.

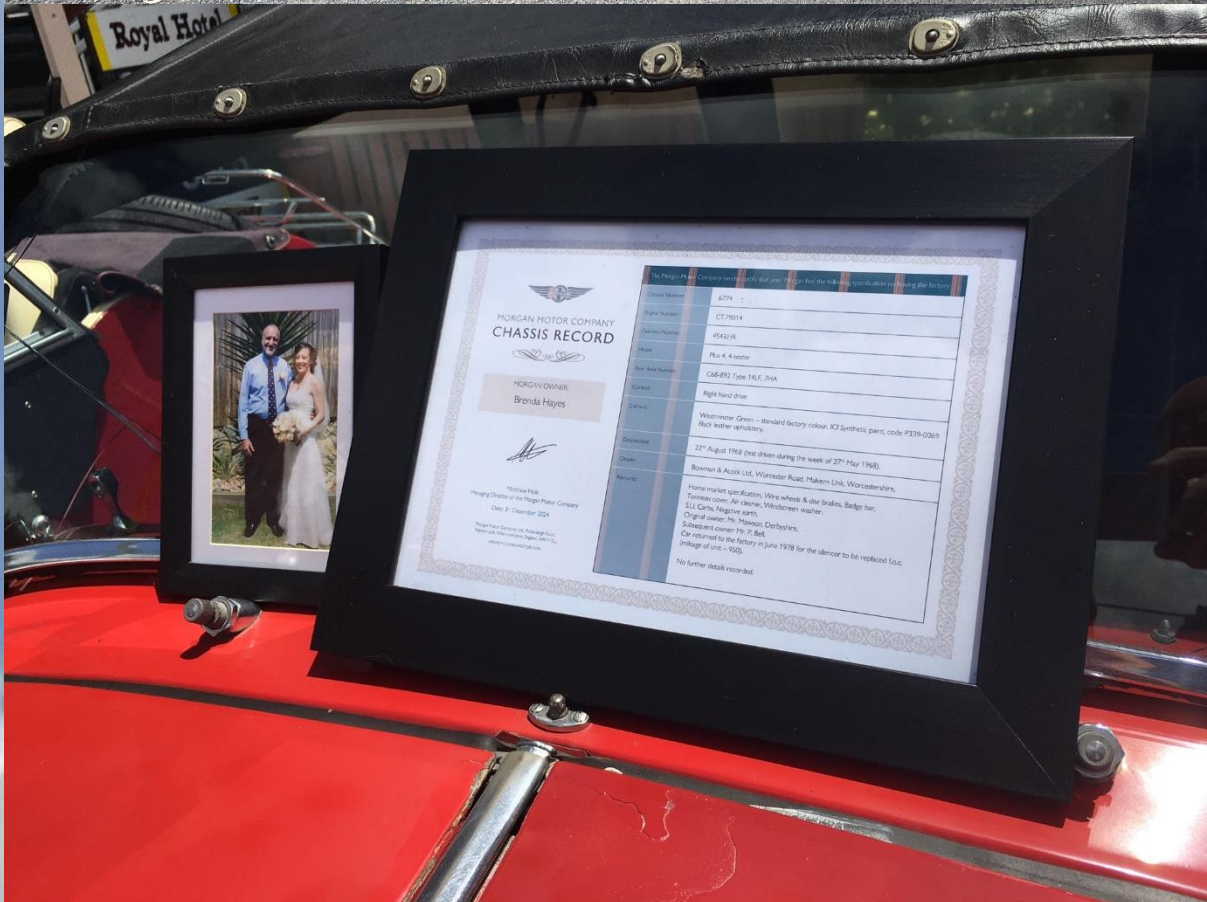

Once seated, a warm welcome was given to those attending, we then tucked into a sumptuous lunch. The Royal Hotel has certainly raised the bar when it comes to a 'pub' lunch. The menu was extensive and the meals not terribly expensive. Cath, the owner, is very passionate about the township and during lunch she delivered a brief history of the hotels origin, how Harrisville came to be and the ghosts that walk the corridors and play tricks on unsuspecting patrons.

It was wonderful to catch up over lunch and hear stories of what others have been up to and as always, the time came when we had to call it a day and head off home. With this concluding the years first run, the stage is now set for some more exciting Morgan outings for the the remainder of 2025.....bring it on I say!

Bye for now and 'til next we meet.
