MEMBERS FORUM

Add's for items under $1,000.00 in value , Morgans for sale and Morgans wanted will be free to members ; the goods must be car related , preferably Morgan related , but not exclusively .....Submit add to Secretary or Editor.

1971 Morgan 4/4 project car for Sale.

Located Brisbane west

This car was used in the run to Roma in August 2024 and several Montville/Maleny runs over the years.

The Village comprises over 50 historic buildings spread over 15 acres. Free golf buggy transport is provided to the QLD Transport, Southern Cross and Machinery Museums, providing an easy walk through the village to afternoon tea.

- 3.00pm Afternoon Tea – freshly cooked damper from Village Bakery, served with traditional Billy Tea in the Woolshed Café (a range of beverages and cakes also available).
As the Village is extensive, and time limited, I've negotiated free admission on the Monday if extending your stay – retain your armband for re-admission.
- 4.00pm Depart for City Golf Club Motel – 775 Ruthven Street (NEH) Toowoomba
Greenside accommodation, undercover parking – 10 quality rooms booked under MOQ
- 5.00pm Happy Hour – City Golf Club Motel – BYO beverages and nibbles
- 6.00pm City Golf Club restaurant – newly renovated/extended – 254 South Street Toowoomba
Free Uber transport to and from motel to club.
- 6.30pm Dinner overlooking the golf course – reserved table – order and pay – good range of meals
Return to motel via Uber at your leisure – early night for an early start Sunday

SUNDAY

From 6.00am Breakfast is your choice – table is booked at Cafe63 – 801 Ruthven Street Toowoomba

A short 200m walk from the motel – fresh coffee, legendary breakfasts, friendly staff

8.00am Checkout of Motel – convoy departure for David Hack Classic, Vintage Warbirds, Classic Cars

8.30am Arrive Old Toowoomba Airport – Aerotek Hanger – Spitfire Street Toowoomba – enter via Exhibitors Lane – park in reserved high-profile area, next to warplanes, in front of main hanger – exhibitors $10 per vehicle – parking attendant will assist Enjoy the classic, vintage racing cars, aircraft and warplanes, historic trucks and military vehicles, motorcycles etc - food, coffee and drink stalls – adventure flights etc.

NOTE ! Many exhibitors dress in their vehicle's vintage classic clothing. As we've been granted a high profile position, flat caps & cravats are definitely the "go" or in the "period", for great photo opportunities.

A feature of this year's show is the restoration in progress of the Supermarine Spitfire Mark 1A X4009, flown by Flight Lieutenant Pat Hughes DFC, Australia's highest scoring fighter ace in the Battle of Britain, as part of the "Hunter Collection".

2.00pm Conclusion – return home or stay a second night, for a leisurely drive home Monday. Sunday night, Golf Club Motel accommodation available, Café 63 usually open for dinner until 9.00pm or dine at the Golf Club restaurant.

Text John – 0427 420809 – when booking or intend staying a second night.

City Golf Club Motel – Tel – 0746 369999

April mid week run to Ocean View Estate

Six Morgans and one special guest gathered at the Camp Mountain home of Susie and Lance Boucaut at 10:00 am on Wednesday 23rd April (St George's day!) under beautiful blue skies, temperature in the mid 20C's – perfect Morganeering weather. Our special guest was a Morgan replica owned by Kevin Brady a friend of MOQ member Tony McDonald, both from Redcliffe. The Morgan replica is a 'MYNX', the yellow car in the photos. Kevin, who restores classic sports cars as a hobby, gave the full story behind the impressive vehicle. We were so impressed that a quick SGM on the run later in the day empowered our Secretary Clive to invite Kevin to join the MOQ! (Details of the MYNX are given in the footnote below.)

After a brief review of the seven cars present eleven hungry people were entertained to a delicious morning tea. Some of us then went on a tour of Lance's shed while other's just enjoyed the tea, coffee and amazing variety of home baked cakes and biscuits and each others' company. Lance's collection of cars included his Cobra, Datsun 240, 1974 Ford XB falcon GT and a rare 1959 Fairthorpe with a Triumph Spitfire engine. Lance raced the Fairthorpe at the Leyburn Sprints last year and plans to enter this year's sprints. A potential MOQ outing? Please contact Clive if you are interested.

Just after 11:00 the seven cars departed Davison Road and set off for Ocean View Estates on the Mount Mee Road. Our 52 km drive took us through the back blocks of Samford, up through the Clear Mountain area, Dayboro and arriving at Ocean View around 12:15pm. The roads were winding and hilly and put our cars through their paces, plenty of gear changes up and down. The glorious blue skies and clear views showed off this region of Southern Queensland at its best. No wonder it was used for locations in the current ABC TV crime series 'Darby and Joan' starring Bryan Brown and Greta Scacchi.

The original plan had been to lunch at Birches restaurant at Mount Mee, but sadly they were closed due to damage caused by cyclone 'Alfred' and our plan 'B' was the restaurant at Ocean View Estate. While they were a little slow and disorganised (the restaurant manager had resigned earlier in the week!), when the drinks and food finally arrived we enjoyed the meal and chat, we were not in a hurry.

Around 2:30pm we noticed some rain clouds forming towards Brisbane and decided that a strategic departure was in order to avoid the Morgan owners' worst nightmare – 'hoods up'! Sunshine Coasters departed north via Woodford and Peachester and just reached home before the rain came down. Hopefully the 'southerners' fared the same.

Thanks again to Susie and Lance Boucaut for their generous hospitality.
